Operations Report – John Rowe

- Gym membership is growing and is expected to continue into next year.
- This gymnastic competition season was very successful.
- The gym program received an anonymous $600 contribution.
- Candle fundraiser raised close to $3,000 and will help defray unplanned gym expenses from earlier in the season.
- The community pool is scheduled to be sandblasted and repainted in early spring 2026. The $8,000 cost has been paid to the contractor Bobby Cross.

Old Business –

- BVRA representatives met with Dave Gutelius Excavating, Inc. The contractor explained the process for repairing and resurfacing the community park's tennis courts. This will be completed in spring, 2026. This is being done with FEMA funds.

New Business –

- There was a brief discussion about remodeling and upgrading the warming house.

Finance –

- Char and Dana presented an overview of October's financial report. (Attached in email.)
