Operations Report – John Rowe

- Three of our gymnasts, 15-year-old boys, will be competing at Nationals in Palm Beach, Fl. A first for our program.
- Gym classes are doing well, as are the supplementals Kinder Playtime, and Parents Night Out. Summer is normally slow for gymnastics.
- Community Pool is being primed and painted. It will be filled soon.
- Summer camp registration is filling up. Curriculum is being finetuned.
- At the request of BVRA attorney Robert Cravitz, BVRA will post an advertisement asking for bids on the tennis court project. (See motions above).

New Business –

- Tennis court construction manager HGR said the fence gate to the tennis court parking lot was overlooked in the design plans. This will add approx. $10k to costs. The board discussed this at length. Design and construction were supposed to be reviewed by HGR prior to breaking ground. A discussion with HGR will take place.

Finance – March financials previously sent via email.
